

Pre-approval Application: 2022 Well Water Testing Rebate

The RDN is offering rebates of 50% off full spectrum analysis of private domestic well water to help residents better understand the health of their groundwater supply. Rebates are available until December 31, 2022 or until funds are exhausted. If you qualify for the rebate, a voucher will be sent to you. This voucher is submitted with your sample to a provincially approved for in-lab rebate of 50% off (up to $175) a full spectrum analysis. A complete list of program requirements is available online at www.RDNrebates.ca and on the Well Water Testing Information sheet. Allow up to four weeks for processing applications.
