

The following organizations have been awarded 2021 Community Grants

- Gabriola Land and Trails Trust - Volunteer Land and Water Stewardship Program for private landowners on Gabriola, Mudge and Decourcy Islands: $2,000
- Nanaimo and District Fish and Game Protective Association 4 - For target runout and retrieval system, pellet traps, target lighting, upgrade to ramp to basement entrance: $5,000
- Nanoose Community Services - Provide ongoing support and food to individuals and families in the community: $5,000
- Oceanside Hospice Society - Additional hospital equipment for Equipment Loan Program: $2,000
- Qualicum Beach Seniors' Activity Centre Association - Virtual platform for activities and services: $2,500
- Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 76 - New food cooler: $3,191.17
- Parksville Seniors Activity and Drop-in Centre - Two new desktop computers: $2,100
- Corcan Meadowood Residents Association - 50-75 commercial folding chairs with rack system: $4,200
- Nanaimo Association for Community Living - Develop accessible community garden: $5,000
- Take a Hike Foundation - Support the outdoor, adventure-based learning component of the Take a Hike Program: $8,733.83
- Cedar Farmers Market Agricultural Society - Create a contest online to increase brand awareness: $525
- Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 10 - Fence construction: $7,500
- Errington Preschool Parents Society - Art supplies and outdoor play equipment: $2,000
- Salish Storm Hockey Association - Support ongoing programs and cost of facility rentals: $2,500
- Coastal Invasive Species Committee Society - Support the Knot on My Property program education and awareness, and field program: $7,000
- The Ecoforestry Institute Society - Outdoor classroom, office, and storage: $10,000

TOTAL AWARDED: $69,250

Get Involved RDN!