

RDN Trucked Liquid Waste Rates and Regulations Bylaw No. 1732 identifies user-rates for waste discharged to an RDN trucked liquid waste facility. Eligible properties may apply for a Holding Tank Waste Disposal User-Rate ($0.01/Imperial gallon).

Note: Separate application forms are available for Temporary Pump and Haul and Horne Lake Properties.

Long Term Pump and Haul

All of the following conditions must be met to qualify:

- The property is within Electoral Area 'B', 'E', 'F', 'G', or 'H', the City of Nanaimo, or the District of Lantzville.
- The property conforms to zoning bylaws.
- The owner or occupier of the property has first obtained a holding tank permit from Island Health.
- The property is for existing uses and the on-site sewage disposal system malfunctioned, OR the property is currently vacant and will only be used for the construction of a single family residence.
- The property is a parcel that cannot be further subdivided, including subdivision under the Strata Property Act, according to existing zoning or a Section 219 covenant under the Land Title Act.
- A community sewer system is not available.
- The property owner(s) agree to connect to a community sewer system if it comes available.
- A covenant is registered against the title to the land.

Application Fee: $100 for single-family residential properties OR $300 for other properties. The applicant is also responsible for covering the legal fees associated with placing a covenant on the property. Legal fees are $400 for the first two property owners and $100 for each additional property owner.

Marine Sewage Reception Facilities

All of the following conditions must be met to qualify:

- Boaters using the marine sewage reception facility are not directly or indirectly charged for the disposal of sanitary sewage from marine vessels.
- The marine sewage reception facility accepts only sanitary sewage from marine vessels.
- The property has first obtained a holding tank permit, if applicable.

Application Fee: $300.

Cancellation of Registration

Registered properties may apply to cancel their registration. The application fee is $100 for single-family residential properties or $300 for other properties. Applicants are responsible for paying the legal fees and charges from the Land Title Office.
